About

Roberts Edible Craft is a 100% Australian owned manufacturer, wholesaler and distributor of edible craft and decorating supplies.

Roberts Edible Craft was established nearly 40 years ago in the 1980s. Historically we were known as Roberts Confectionery and started our early days at the Dandenong Market and Oakleigh factory, in Victoria. It was the first company to introduce Australians to the concept of DIY chocolate making. We still have customers to this day that remember the delicious tubs of fillings and flavours that found their way into their home pantries.

From those early beginnings, Roberts Edible Craft has grown into the company it is today. Supplying an extensive range of cake decorating, chocolate making and edible crafting products throughout Australia, New Zealand and International.

You can find us in major craft retailers as well as private and independent store fronts, on-line sellers, commercial distributors and private label.

The Roberts logo is displayed in white text on a solid magenta square background.

We won't compromise in presenting you the very best products we can supply or source.

Our product range is developed by us in Australia and we undertake extensive research, testing and trouble shooting to design products that work exactly how we want them to. We don't engage in generic bulk buys or low quality gimmicks. Our customers rely on us to present products that work each and every time and that is our core test for every product that makes it into our product range.

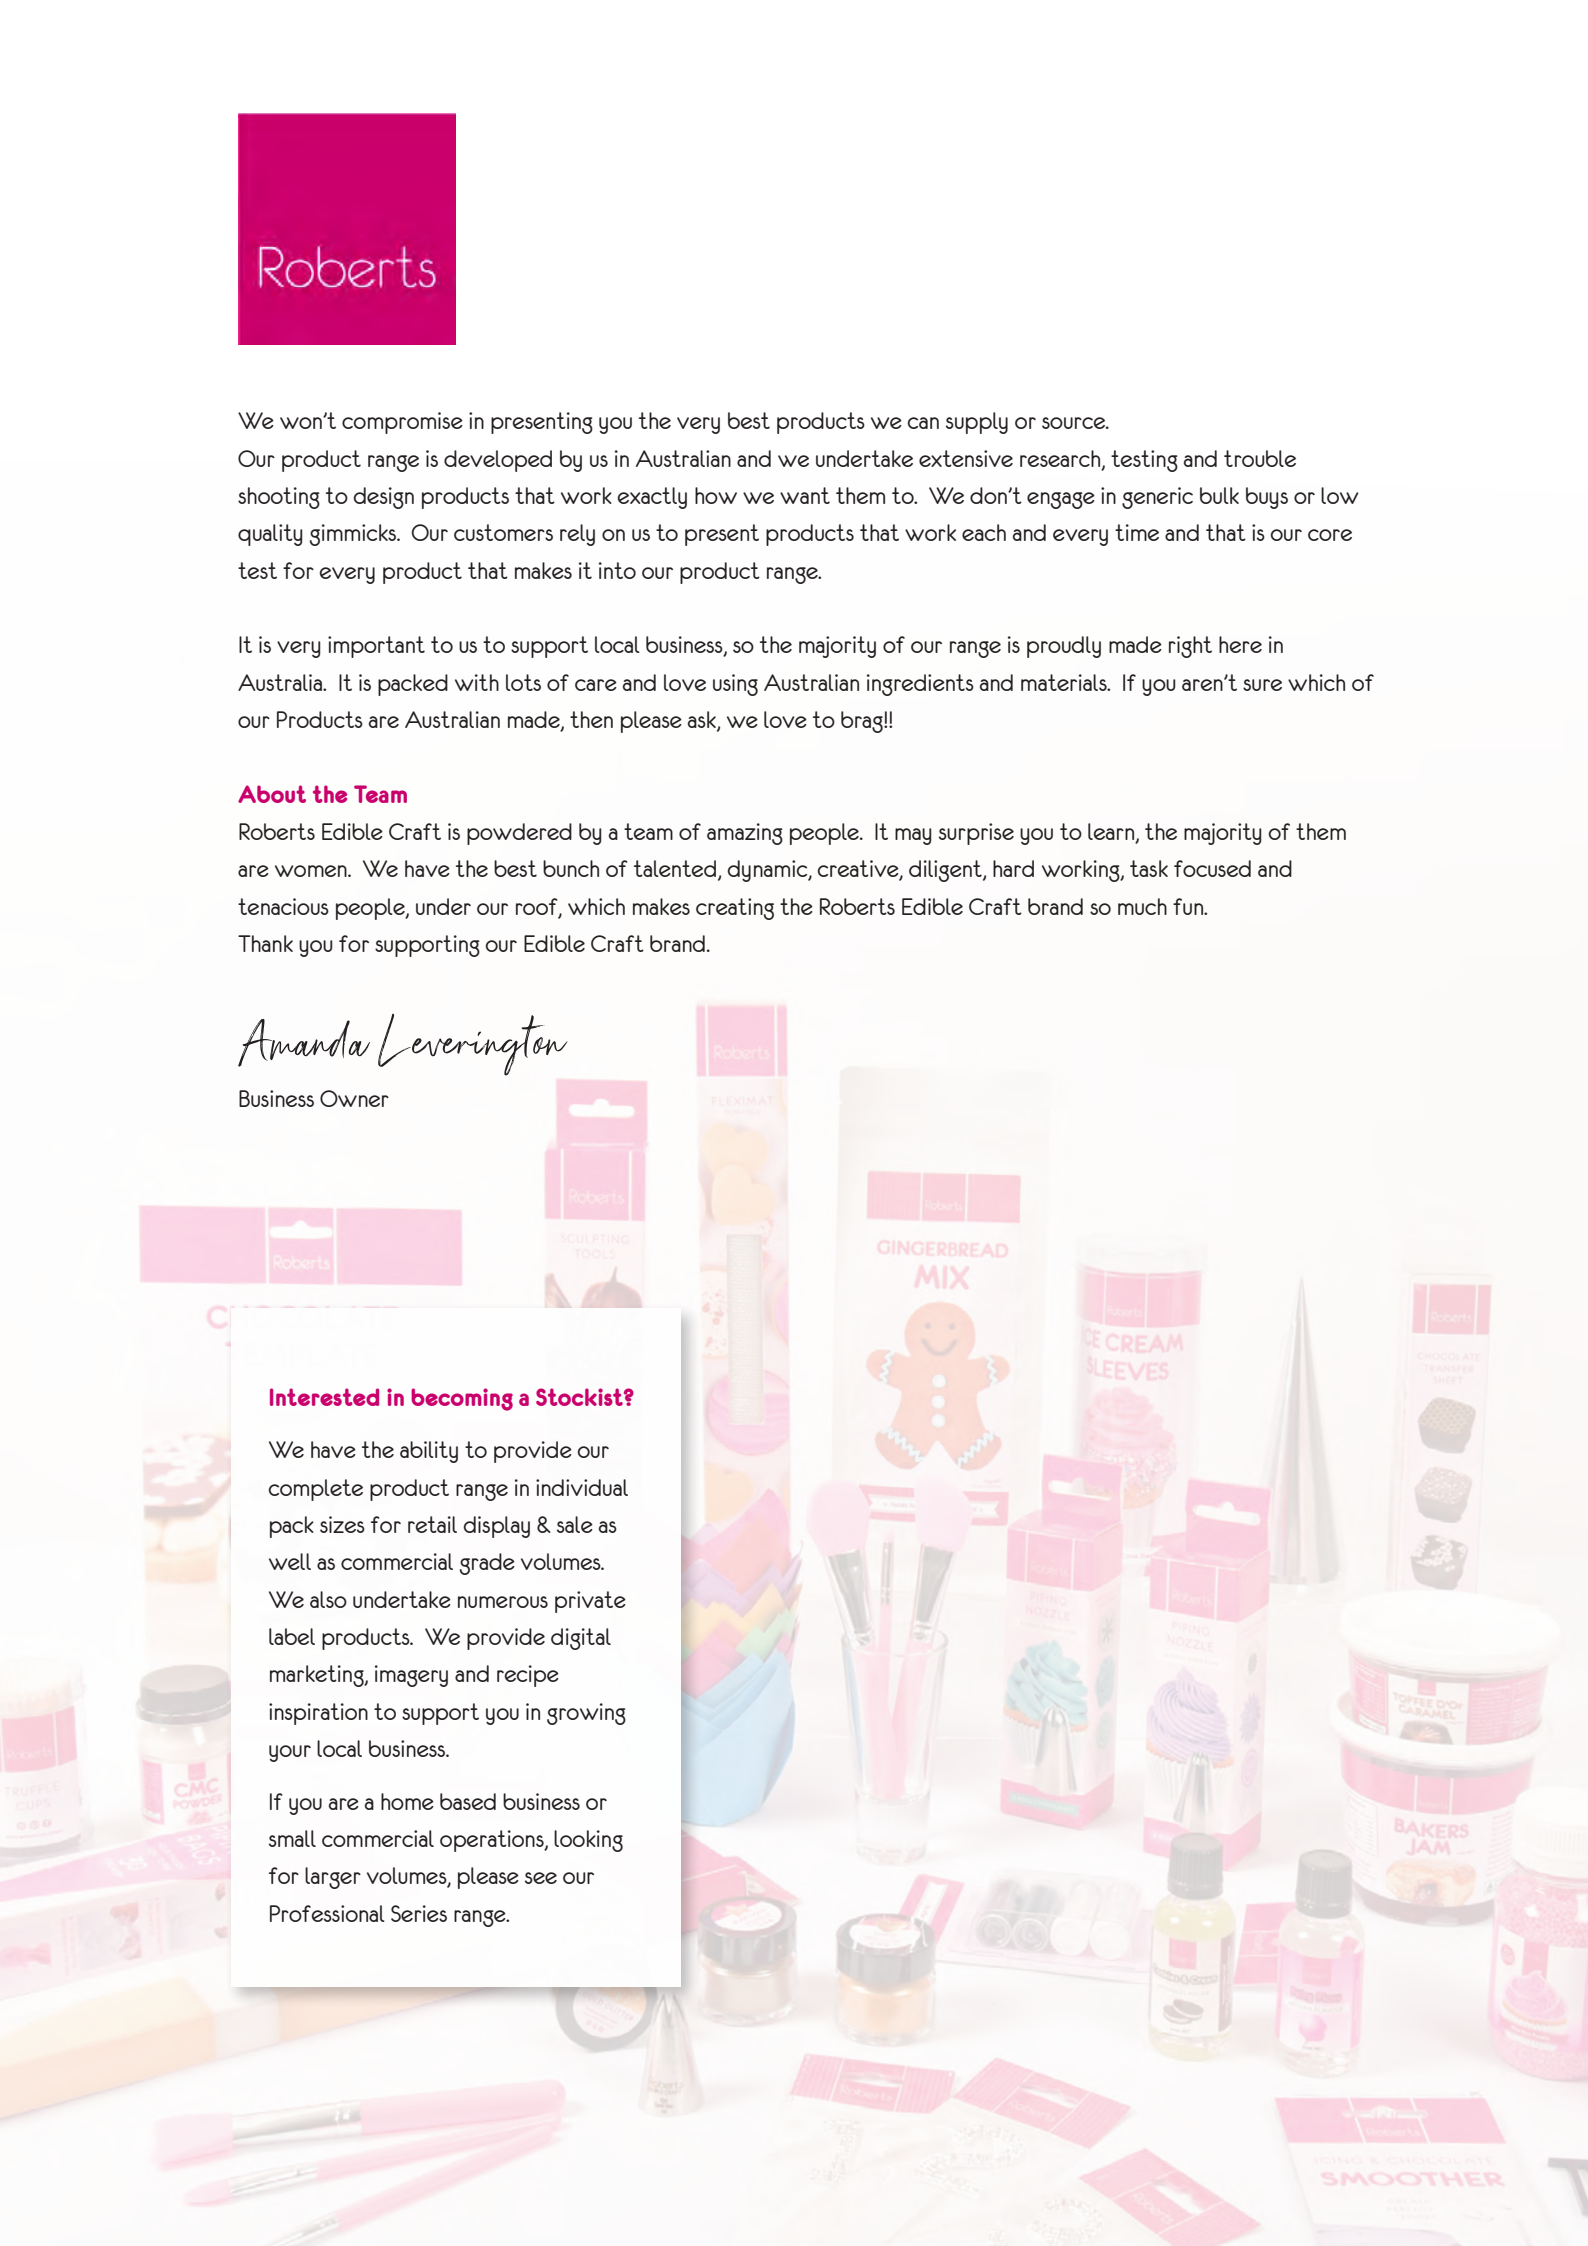

It is very important to us to support local business, so the majority of our range is proudly made right here in Australia. It is packed with lots of care and love using Australian ingredients and materials. If you aren't sure which of our Products are Australian made, then please ask, we love to brag!!

About the Team

Roberts Edible Craft is powdered by a team of amazing people. It may surprise you to learn, the majority of them are women. We have the best bunch of talented, dynamic, creative, diligent, hard working, task focused and tenacious people, under our roof, which makes creating the Roberts Edible Craft brand so much fun. Thank you for supporting our Edible Craft brand.

Amanda Leverington

Business Owner

A large, detailed photograph of various Roberts Edible Craft products is shown in the background. The products include boxes of Gingerbread Mix, Ice Cream Sleeves, Chocolate Transfer Sheets, and various piping nozzles and tools. There are also jars of Bakers Jam, Truffle Cups, and other baking ingredients. The products are arranged on a white surface, creating a visually appealing display.

Interested in becoming a Stockist?

We have the ability to provide our complete product range in individual pack sizes for retail display & sale as well as commercial grade volumes. We also undertake numerous private label products. We provide digital marketing, imagery and recipe inspiration to support you in growing your local business.

If you are a home based business or small commercial operations, looking for larger volumes, please see our Professional Series range.
